The National Council of Catholic Women, NCCW, has set forth a commission system in which the purpose and goals of the Council of Catholic Women, CCW, are implemented.

Spirituality - includes Church and Legislation:

Church: to establish a community of God's people enhancing the spirituality of its members and to reach out to other Catholic women in the area.

Legislation: to educate women to be politically effective and responsible in current state and national issues relative to all the commissions.

Service:

This is the action commission to do service without boundaries; direct volunteering for non-profit organizations in the community.

Leadership:

This promotes leadership qualities in our members. It is responsible for advertising, communication, assisting with programs for meetings, agendas for meetings and membership.

 Within the commissions, there are several committees to keep our CCW running smoothly. Please select any of the committees that you would be willing to share your talents or would like to learn more about:
